Finding Information in Proquest Research Library

1. From the library home page, you can access the Proquest database from these links.

2. Choose Proquest from the list of choices.

In the alphabetical list:

From the CLS Subject Guide:
3. Once in the Proquest Database, enter your search term in the search box, click on “Full text” to limit results to full text articles, and search.

4. From the list of results, find one full-text article that was written after 2009. Click on the article title to view the full text and find citation information.

5. The tools near the top right of the page allow you to print or email the article to yourself. Click the Cite link to create an MLA-formatted citation.