Bradley EN101 Guided Library Resources Search

My Topic: ________________________________________________________________

GRCC Library Home Page: www.grcc.edu/library

English Composition Subject Guide: subjectguides.grcc.edu/englishcomposition

1. Starting from the English Composition Subject Guide use RaiderSearch to find a print book on your topic. Perform a keyword search and list the following:

   Author(s): ________________________________________________________________
   Title: ___________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________________
   Publisher: ___________________________ Publication Date: ______
   Call # ______________________ Library Location: ____________________

2. [Modify Search] results to the MATERIAL type = e-books. Open the e-book and see how it works!

   Author(s): ________________________________________________________________
   Title: ___________________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________________
   Publisher: ___________________________ Publication Date: ______

3. Go back to the English Composition Subject Guide and select ProQuest Central to search for a fulltext magazine article on your topic and list the following:

   Author(s)______________________________________________________________
   Title of article _____________________________________________________________
   _________________________________________________________________________
   Title of journal _____________________________________________________________
   Vol. _____ Issue # _______ Date ________________ Page #(s)___________
4. Go back to the English Composition Subject Guide and select Academic OneFile to search for a fulltext scholarly journal article on your topic and list the following:

   Author(s)_________________________________________________________________
   Title of article  _____________________________________________________________
   Title of journal _____________________________________________________________
   Vol. _____ Issue # ________ Date ________________  Page #(s)___________

5. Go to list of all Subject Guides and select the subject guide you believe best aligns with your topic and select a different database then used above to search. Locate a fulltext article on your topic and list the following:

   Author(s)_________________________________________________________________
   Title of article  _____________________________________________________________
   Title of journal _____________________________________________________________
   Vol. _____ Issue # ________ Date ________________  Page #(s)___________